

Recursion

- method is recursive when it calls itself
- recursive method should have breaking condition
- if we don't have breaking condition the method would return Stack Overflow Exception
- Sometime even when we have breaking condition it can throw Stack Overflow Exception

if it call itself to many time

- iterative implementation usually run faster
  - it uses less memory
- recursive implementation is often more elegant